

8th June 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Please see below for this week's bulletin.

Year 7 & 8 assessments

Congratulations to Year 7 and 8 who have worked hard to share knowledge in their assessments last week. These results will now help teachers to identify gaps in learning from this year and ensure this is addressed in their planning next year.

Plea for advocates

We are now entering the time of year where Year 6 students joining us in September are beginning their induction programme. I would value any current Year 7 or 8 parents/carers that would like to be part of our induction evening and share their experience of transition. Offering prospective new parents'/carers reassurance and useful tips through this journey. If you would be able to help, please let Mrs Owen know on aon@priorycofe.com

Year 10 – Senior prefect applications

Students in Year 10 has been informed that they can now apply for the roles of Head Student, Deputy Head Student, and positions within the Student Council for the next academic year. Students that apply through written application, will then be short listed through to interviews with myself. This is a fantastic opportunity for students to begin stepping into leadership roles and to help shape the direction and culture of the school.

Joe's Buddy Line

Joe's Buddy Line are running an informative workshop for parents focused on understanding and nurturing neurodivergent children. It's designed to be accessible, practical and reassuring for families who may really benefit from it. The aim is to give parents greater confidence, understanding and tools to support their children. Bookings can be made via this link:
